J. D. Cowan left on Monday for the Coast on a business trip. He will be absent a couple of weeks.

Mrs. W. F. Rook and family spent a couple of days off last week in Edmonton visiting her sister, Mrs. Keen.

J. W. Bailey and son spent a few days of last week at the Capital on business. They returned on Saturday afternoon.

Don't forget the Dixie Jubilee Singers at the Angus Opera House, on Friday, December 2nd, 1910. Absolute ly the finest line that ever visited Wetaskiwin.

Mrs. McKay, president of the Rebekah Assembly for the jurisdiction of Alberta, was in the city on Tuesday evening, and paid an official visit to Crescent Rebekah Lodge No. 5.

Ed. Bailey, of Toronto arrived in the city on Monday morning, being summoned on account of the serious condition of his mother, Mrs. C. O. Bailey, who has many friends exceedingly regret, has been gradually sinking for some time.

At the regular meeting of Wetaskiwin Lodge No. 3, I. O. O. F. on Monday evening last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: N. G., Bro. H. B. Ottley; V. G., Bro. A. E. Wyman; R. S., Bro. G. H. Robinson; F. S., Bro. E. E. Chandler; Treas., L. O. Kaley.

The Wetaskiwin skating rink opened for the season on Monday evening and a very large number of young people took advantage of the opportunity to spend an enjoyable outing. The ice was in good condition for the opening night and music was furnished by the Wetaskiwin Band.

W. J. McNamara was at Edmonton last week where he conducted a successful auction sale of Camrose lots. We understand the first clearing operations to place two of the townships of the Grand Trunk Pacific Calgary branch on the market in a few days. The first lot is a 160 acre tract, located on the 16th and 17th ranges, and is being sold by the Government.

J. Backville was at Edmonton on Saturday, after spending several days on the continent. He says he had a most delightful time, but found the water very rough on the return voyage, and as a consequence many of the passengers were sick, including himself. Mrs. West and Miss Hope are in Germany, where they will remain some time to enable the latter to further her musical studies.

At a meeting of the representatives from the Farmers Unions in this district held at the Farmers' Co-operative Store Wetaskiwin a few days ago, Geo. H. Manser, of Lethbridge was selected as the delegate to go to Ottawa to represent the farmers' unions and Farmers' Co-operative stores in this vicinity. He will join the other representatives from Western Canada at Winnipeg, on Dec. 12th. It is expected that there will be at least 50 delegates from the Western provinces.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Next Sunday morning the monthly communion service will be held at the close of the regular morning service. New members will be given the baptism of fellowship. The subject of the morning sermon will be "The Lord's Supper". In the evening the pastor will preach on "The Blessings of Forgiveness". The choir will sing special music. Strangers and visitors will receive a hearty welcome.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Very good response was received to the appeal of the Missionary Secretary last Sunday. It is hoped that the final returns for the fund this year will average at least $2.00 for each member of the church in Wetaskiwin. The contributions last year amounted to nearly $200.00.

Rev. A. R. Aldridge, who has been away at Camrose, Leduc, St. George's Bay is home again and will occupy the pulpit at both services next Sunday and other places during the past few days.

JUBILEE SINGERS

The visit of the Ferguson Dixie Jubilee Singers at the Cardston Assembly Hall on Friday evening proved to be a musical feast. Such harmony coming from an aggregation of colored people has not been heard in Cardston for many years. The large hall was filled by an appreciative audience who enjoyed each number of the magnificent program. The soprano, tenor and bass were particularly fine and solos by each of these were greatly appreciated. The old familiar airs, classic numbers and the call of imitation were very well rendered, and caused considerable applause. Angus Opera House, Friday evening, Dec. 2nd, under the auspices of the Baseball Club.

A CHALLENGER

The determined efforts of the big Mail Order Houses to capture local trade and take money away from home has encouraged our local jeweller, E. T. Williams, to issue an elaborate catalogue of his own, which shows by actual comparison the advantage of doing all your jewelry buying through him. It is no hand-some book as we have seen, and is a direct challenge to Mail Order Competition to keep hands off, as far as this section is concerned. It adds the assurance of their personal guarantee with everything they sell, and shows to what surprising extent they are able to meet requirements.

BAPTIST BIBLE CLASS BANQUET

Last Friday evening the Bible Class of the First Baptist church, held a highly successful banquet. The tables were beautifully arranged and bountifully spread with fowl, salads and other delicacies. A large number were present and enjoyed the good things. After the banquet the organization of the class according to the "New Movement" plan was discussed. The pastor outlined the aims, objects and methods of work in these classes and it was decided to organize, and seek affiliation with the International Association. The charter members' roll will be kept open until the end of the year and a membership of 50 will be aimed at. The following officers were elected:

Teacher, Rev. O. T. Holman, M. A.
President, Mr. C. W. Weir.
Secretary, Mr. J. H. Jones.
Treasurer, Miss M. H. Hamren.
Chairman of Committees, Membership, Mr. J. M. Peterkin.
Glad Hand, Miss N. Carlson.
Visitation, Miss I. Finch.
Social, Mrs. C. V. Call.
Devotional, Mr. O. Carlson.

During the evening very felicitous addresses were delivered by Rev. O. C. McLaughlin, of Calgary, superintendent of the Alberta Missions, and the Rev. E. McGowan, of the Presbyterian church. Several musical numbers were also well rendered, and much appreciated. The superintendent of the Sunday school, M. F. McNally B. A., occupied the chair. The evening program closed with the singing of "Blest be the Tie That Binds."

THE STRAY ORDINANCE

Farmers in this district should be conversant with the regulations in the amended ordinance re stray stock. According to the law the owner on whose place the stray is must at once notify the brand reader nearest to his place to go out and examine the animal, and take a copy of the brand, if any on the animal. Then an advertisement must be inserted in the nearest local paper, and also in the Alberta Gazette, and until the law is complied with the holder of the stray cannot collect any fee for his trouble or feed. All parties on whose premises there are any strays must take action at once, as the law is very strict in this matter. The brand readers are entitled to a fee of $2.00 for each animal they examine, and mileage to the amount of ten cents a mile after the first ten miles. The costs for reading brand and advertising same is a charge against the stray animal and must be paid by the owner when claiming animal. The party claiming animal is responsible for all charges against animal, until it is sold, or redeemed by owner.

No charges for feed are allowed between the 15th April and 15th November. From 15th November to 15th April the feed charges allowed are for each head of horses or cattle 15c per day from the date of mailing the notice to the owner or to the Alberta Gazette, but not exceeding the sum of $1.00. South of the 29th township only 1c per day is allowed, but not exceeding the sum of $1.00.

HYOMEL

The Breathable Remedy for Catarrh

The rational way to combat Catarrh is the Hyomel way, viz by breathing. Scientists for years have been agreed on this point but failed to get an antiseptic strong enough to kill catarrh germs and not destroy the tissues of the membrane at the same time, until the discovery of Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel).

Hyomel is the most powerful yet healing antiseptic known. Breathe it through the inhaler over the inflamed and germ-ridden membrane four or five times a day, and in a few days the germ will disappear.

A complete Hyomel outfit, including the inhaler, costs $1.00 and extra bottles if afterwards needed, sent but 5c. Obtainable from your druggist, or postpaid from the R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Port Erie, Ont. Hyomel is guaranteed to cure asthma, croup, sore throat, coughs, colds or grip, refund your money back. Sold and guaranteed by The Red Cross Drug Store.

FIFTEEN LITTLE CHILDREN

At the present time there are fifteen little children, boys and girls, ranging from two months to thirteen years of age, in the shelters of Alberta for adoption. Seven of these are Roman Catholic and eight are Protestant.

By the Children's Protection Act of 1909, a Protestant child must be adopted in none other than a Protestant home, a Roman Catholic likewise in a Roman Catholic home. This is not generally known among people who make application for children and for their benefit we give herewith a few paragraphs dealing with this matter. Section 10, ss (4) of the above named act reads: "If the court is of the opinion that the parent ought not to have the custody of the child but that the child is being brought up in different religion from that in which the parent has a legal right to require that the child should be brought up, the court shall have power to make such order in the court may think fit to secure that the child be brought up in that religion." (5) "Nothing in this section shall affect the power of the court to consult the wishes of the child in determining what order ought to be made, or any right which a child now possesses to exercise its own free choice."

Section 8, ss (3) "In placing children in foster homes the foster parents are bound 'under a written contract which shall provide for the education of the child in a public school, if available, (or in the case of a Roman Catholic child in a separate school, if available).'"

Why all this effort to place homeless children in foster homes? Why not build a big institution and look after them all together?

First—Because the institution falls down when it comes to turning out the all-round type of men and women which the home can take out from the same material, adopted and trained in the home.

Second—Environment is a stronger factor in child life than heredity.

Third—A good home is prepared to give the child a larger dose of human love and kindness than any institution possibly can, hence a greater impetus in a life of morality and all those admirable qualities based thereon.

Fourth—In an all-round utility training the institution cannot begin to rank with the home.

Fifth—There are more applications for children from homesteads and homeless homes throughout Alberta than this Province can possibly fill leaving a choice of the best homes open to homeless children.

Sixth—In the face of these facts the building of an institution for the dependent and neglected children of Alberta would at the present time be an unwarrantable expenditure of either public or private funds.

The superintendent of neglected children, Edmonton, is at all times desirous of getting in touch with good homes who wish to help some little child to a clean, joyful, kindly life.

Mr. Tom Higginson who left the city in May last in charge of H. McGrandel's outfit returned to town on Monday and is a guest of W. J. McGrandel at the Coulee Ranch.

As may be seen by advt. elsewhere, Geo. L. Owen starts this (Friday) evening to conduct an auction sale at his auction rooms of goods suitable for Christmas. Read the advt.

Mayor Montgomery has called a meeting of the ratepayers for this Friday evening in August Hall to discuss municipal matters before the adjournment of the city's officials, on Monday next. Every ratepayer should make it a point to be at the meeting and learn the city's true condition.

The Farmers' Institute meeting held in the city hall on Friday last was not as well attended as should have been, but a good meeting was held nevertheless. Mr. Nixon, editor of the Canadian Farmer, was in attendance and gave a good address on farm life. A general discussion took place which proved both interesting and educative to all present.

The citizens of Wetaskiwin who have for a long time been certain that there was a good brick yard in the district, are pleased to know that three experienced men have decided to come here, having purchased several acres from A. Geaz, just west of the city, where, from a test that has been made it has been found that the clay of an excellent quality is available. The company which is composed of Messrs. Rasmusson, Nelson, Rasmussen and N. P. Nilsson, will be known as the Wetaskiwin Brick Co. They will put up at least 500 cords of wood this winter and have everything in readiness to start in the spring as soon as weather will permit.

COURT OF REVISION

The council has been busy this week hearing the appeals against the last assessment. There were a large number of objections made on different grounds, some of which were adjusted to the satisfaction of both the appellant and the city. However a number are not satisfied, and we understand they intend to take the matter to the judge for his decision. The council sat twice on Monday and twice on Tuesday as a court of revision and did not conclude their work until late on Tuesday evening.

A brief council meeting was held after the court of revision was closed, but the only business transacted was the passing of the accounts.

BECAME SO WEAK AT TIMES COULD NOT WORK.

Mrs. George Hill, Grimby, Ont., writes: "Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I suffered greatly with my nerves and became so weak at times I could not work. A friend of mine advised me to try a box of your pills, which I did, and soon found great relief. They are the best medicine I have ever taken for the heart and nerves. I recommend them to any one suffering from heart or nerve trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills make the weak heart strong and the shaky nerves firm by imparting a strengthening and restorative influence to every organ and tissue of the body and eradicating the cause of the heart, dizziness, sleeplessness, anemia, twitching of the muscles, general debility, lack of vitality, etc.

YEAR OLD GIRL CURED OF KIDNEY TROUBLES

Mrs. Alex. Moore, of James St., Oxford, N.S., says: "Dorothy's Kidney Pills cured our little daughter Christine, now six years, of many symptoms of kidney weakness. She complained of a sore back, the kidney secretions were frequent and smelly, especially at night. Her stomach was weak and her appetite poor. This caused her to have frequent headaches, and the least exertion would tire her. We had tried many remedies but she did not improve. Finally we heard of Dorothy's Kidney Pills and procured a box. In short time she was well and does not now complain about her back. The kidney secretions have become normal and she plays around the house with no apparent fatigue. We always recommend Dorothy's Kidney Pills."

TEMPERANCE COLUMN

The W. C. T. U.

SASKATCHEWAN'S STRUGGLE

A campaign is on in Saskatchewan that is big in significance. The wet are of the middle provinces will be very materially affected by its results and earnest efforts are being made that the results shall be good. It is a campaign for a barless Saskatchewan. The organized temperance forces are taking advantage of the very excellent law and are bringing on local option contests in all parts of the province. In accordance with the provisions of this law, petition have been duly filed by four cities, seventeen towns, eighty-two villages, thirty-two rural municipalities and forty local improvement districts, and in all of these conclusions will be tried at the polls on December 12. It will thus be seen that the campaign is practically province-wide and that the outcome of the contest will be more than local. It was another condition of the law that registration of qualified electors be taken at all points, and there was a surprising eagerness to comply. The Temperance and Moral Reform Council had been preparing for months, and the campaign in the larger centres was directed by experienced leaders. The liquor party was later in taking action but went into the fight with its accustomed energy and according to its accustomed methods. Addition to the lists, as a result of this extraordinary activity, were very substantial. In Saskatchewan, for instance, 1,400 names were registered, and in Prince Albert 600. Each side may, of course, claim its proportion of them, but it indicates at any rate, that the contest at the polls will not be an indifferent one. Meanwhile the campaign goes on, with its emphasis now upon the next stage, the final vote. The licensed victuallers claim that they will win, and, of course, they have no reason for their easy confidence, while on the other hand a solid temperance sentiment is forming among the thinking people of the province.

The campaign in Saskatchewan is worthy of the interest and attention of Western people in general. It is the most extensive effort along this line that has yet been made in the West, and it may well be hoped that success will crown it.

A large number of addresses and sermons have been delivered in connection with the local option campaign in Saskatchewan, and more are to follow. Rev. I. E. Wood of Saskatoon, said in one of his recent addresses that the time is ripe for determining the number of those who believe liquor a proper kind of merchandise, and would have it sold under sanction of the law, and the number of those who would have its sale prohibited by law. The voters were asked to consider their families and their neighbors' families, and the stranger within their gates when they figured out the effect of licensed bars continuing to exist, and the effect of their possible, illegal substitutes. That stumbling blocks have always existed and that some will continue to exist was admitted. That the vote of the voters would be one of these, that when Gabriel blows his trumpet on the final morning, some man might be discovered in his cups, was also granted. But the occasion of stumbling blocks should be made the occasions of removing the stumbling blocks. The fatalist says, "Because these things have been, they must always be." Civilization says, "Remove all these you can."

To many the best choice is between the stumbling block of legalized drunkard-factories and criminal ones. For them the question must be, which leads the fewer men to stumble.

The activities of the manufacturers of liquor were taken as an indication that they believe more living will be sold under license than otherwise. The witnesses who declared the case with which liquor can be secured in a temperance town, are men whose testimony under oath, touching liquor is universally recognized as unsatisfactory.

The outlawed saloon creates not few new drinkers and hence the trail he would wear itself out upon the death of former drinkers.

Personal responsibility cannot be credited on an issue that decides whether means for the ruin of man shall be permitted or prohibited. "Woe to him who does not try to remove the stumbling blocks." The responsibility for these evils after voting day will not rest on the entire community, but wholly upon the portion which has voted to continue the business. The man who does his part against the tariff is free of guilt. But in case the temperance people win they are under obligation to assist in the enforcement of law against an illicit traffic which may be attempted. They are under obligation to assist in practical measures for the accommodation of the travelling public in business houses of entertainment.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. J. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.
